

ORGANIZATION AND FUNCTIONS
UNITED STATES ARMY INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

Effective 15 September 1974

Local supplementation of this regulation is prohibited, except upon approval of the Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence, Department of the Army.

Purpose.....	Paragraph 1
Mission.....	2
Principal Functions.....	3
Command Staff Relationships.....	4
Other Relationships.....	5

1. Purpose. This regulation sets forth the mission and principal functions of the Commander, United States Army Intelligence Agency and prescribes command and staff relationships with higher and collateral echelons.

2. Mission. The mission of the Commander, US Army Intelligence Agency, is to conduct operational intelligence collection and counterintelligence activities in support of the Army, and provide CONUS-based support to other Army Commands conducting intelligence and counterintelligence activities.

3. Principal Functions. The principal functions of the Commander, US Army Intelligence Agency are to—

a. Plan, coordinate, and provide counterintelligence support, consisting of counterintelligence investigations, operations, and services to the Department of the Army and major Army commands.

b. Conduct within CONUS, Alaska, Hawaii, Panama, Puerto Rico, and the US Virgin Islands, those counterintelligence investigations concerned with DA military and civilian personnel security programs, and designated DOD agency security programs wherein significant unfavorable information has been developed requiring special categorization of the investigations such as loyalty, suitability, or complaint, and provide the results to the cognizant commander.

c. Conduct personnel security investigations within the Panama Canal Zone and the Western Pacific in response to tasking from the Defense Investigative Service.

d. Conduct counterintelligence services within CONUS, Alaska, Hawaii, Panama Canal Zone, Puerto Rico, the US Virgin Islands, and the Western Pacific for Army forces and designated DOD and other US Government agencies. Conduct counterintelligence services Army-wide for designated Army and DOD agencies.

e. Provide counterintelligence coverage to the Pentagon Reservation in accordance with DOD Directive 5100-49 and execute the Alternate Joint Communications Center counterintelligence program in accordance with DOD Directive 5200-25.

f. Conduct Department of the Army personnel security adjudicative programs.

g. Maintain Department of the Army repository for counterintelligence and intelligence files.

h. Conduct Department of the Army programs to provide military and civilian intelligence specialist as directed by HQ DA.

i. Be prepared as required, to debrief US Army personnel returned to US control.

j. Conduct intelligence activities authorized in AR 381-150.

4. Command and staff relationships. US Army Intelligence Agency is a field operating agency of the Office of the Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence, Department of the Army. The Commander is responsible to the Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence, DA for all operations of the agency. Directives, authorities, policy planning and programing guidance, approved programs, and resource allocations are issued to the Commander, US Army Intelligence Agency by the Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence, DA.

5. Other relationships. a. The Commander, US Army Intelligence Agency is authorized to communicate directly with major Army commanders and with directors of Headquarters, Department of the Army agencies in their command capacities with respect to matters of mutual interest.

b. The Commander, US Army Intelligence Agency will maintain liaison with the US Army Criminal Investigation Command, with counterpart activities of the Departments of the Navy and Air Force, and with those governmental agencies necessary for coordination of activities of mutual interest.